FLORIDA STATE OPENS SPRING PRACTICE WITH FOCUS ON 2019

» Last season 25 Seminoles, including 15 true freshmen, made their collegiate debut and 19 student-athletes earned their first career start. Florida State returns a majority of its production from 2018, welcoming back 83.3 percent of its interceptions, 80.0 percent of its receiving touchdowns, 78.7 percent of is scoring, 74.8 percent of its tackles, 73.8 percent of its all-purpose yards, 71.8 percent of its quarterback hurries, 71.0 percent of its receiving yards, 69.6 percent of its receptions, 64.5 percent of its rushing yards, 63.8 percent of its tackles for loss, 60.0 percent of its forced fumbles, 56.7 percent of its pass breakups, 55.4 percent of its sacks and 54.5 percent of its rushing touchdowns.

» The offense evolution continues this season with the hire of Kendal Briles as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Briles, who will have primary play-calling duties, is entering his fifth season coordinating an FBS offense and has averaged 41.8 points per game in that span.

» Kendal Briles' first season as an offensive coordinator, in 2015 at Baylor, produced an NCAA-leading 48.1 points per game and a nation-leading 616.2 yards per game, the 3rd-highest season average in NCAA history. In 2013 and 2014, while he served as passing game coordinator, the Bears also ranked 1st in the nation with averages of 52.4 and 48.2 points per game, respectively, and in 2013 produced the 2nd-highest single-season total offense average in NCAA history with 618.8 yards per game.

» Florida State also added 1999 national champion Ron Dugans as wide receivers coach and Randy Clements as offensive line coach. Dugans, who played three seasons in the NFL after his time on the gridiron for the Seminoles, worked with FSU head coach Willie Taggart for two seasons at South Florida before spending the previous three at Miami. Clements has nearly three decades of experience coaching offensive line, including 10 years on the same staff as Kendal Briles.

» The Seminoles passed for 3,241 yards in 2018, the most in program history under a first-year head coach, and posted the highest single-game passing total of Willie Taggart's head coaching career with 421 yards at North Carolina State, the most in a game for FSU since 2013.

» The passing yards total was propped by big plays through the air as FSU tied for 1st in the ACC with three 70-plus yard passing plays and ranked third with 24 passing plays of at least 30 yards and with 51 passing plays of 20-plus yards.

» In the final 11 games of the 2018 season, FSU scored on 24 of its 28 Red Zone trips, putting points on the board in 85.7 percent of its Red Zone chances and averaging 6.2 points per Red Zone conversion in that span.

» The Seminoles were 12-of-24 (.500) on 4th-down conversion attempts last season, tying for 5th in the ACC in successful conversions and ranking 6th in the conference in attempts. In records dating back to 1996, the 24 attempts are the most by the Seminoles in a season and the 12 conversions are 2nd behind only the 15 successful conversions in 2004.

» Florida State ranked 2nd in the ACC and tied for 17th in the NCAA in 4th-down defense, holding opponents to a conversion rate of .393 (11-of-28) in 2018.

» FSU held its opponents to 3.52 yards per rush, which ranked 2nd in the ACC and 20th in the NCAA in 2018.

» Last season, the Seminoles kept nine of their 12 opponents under their season yards-per-carry average. Five opponents were held to at least 1.5 yards per carry below their season average, including holding Clemson and Northern Illinois to more than 3.0 yards per carry less than their average for the season.

» FSU allowed 16 rushing touchdowns in 2018, the 4th-lowest total in the ACC.

GAME NOTES: OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

» Redshirt sophomore James Blackman enters spring as FSU's most-experienced quarterback and is 206-of-348 passing for 2,740 yards and 24 touchdowns in his career. After being forced into action during the first game of 2017, Blackman appeared in four games in 2018 and took advantage of a new rule that allowed student-athletes to play in up to four games while maintaining a redshirt.
» Blackman was 173-of-297 passing for 2,230 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2017. His passing yards and touchdown passes were the most by a true freshman in program history.
» Last season, the Belle Glade native was 33-of-51 passing for 510 yards and five touchdowns.
» In his only start of 2018, Blackman threw for 421 yards at North Carolina State, the 15th-highest single-game total in program history and the most by a Seminole since Jameis Winston passed for 444 in 2013. It also was the highest single-game total in Willie Taggart's head coaching career.
» FSU added West Palm Beach native Jordan Travis, who played three games at Louisville as a true freshman in 2018 and passed for 71 yards with one touchdown while adding 40 yards on eight carries. Travis also redshirted the 2018 season and has four years of eligibility remaining.

RUNNING BACKS

» Florida State returns one of the nation's most dynamic running backs in rising junior Cam Akers as well as sophomores Anthony Grant and Khalan Laborn.
» Akers, who broke FSU's freshman rushing record previously held by Dalvin Cook in 2017, already ranks 18th on the program's all-time career rushing list with 1,730 yards on the ground.
» In 2018, Akers led the Seminoles in rushing yards and all-purpose yards while tying for the team lead in touchdowns scored.
» Laborn is expected to return after being injured in the second game of the 2018 season. In his action before the injury he returned three kickoffs for 64 total yards and caught a 37-yard pass that showcased his elusiveness and top-notch speed.
» Grant became FSU's primary kick returner following Laborn's injury and led the team with 247 yards on 11 returns, good for an average of 22.5 yards per return that ranked fifth among ACC freshmen.

WIDE RECEIVERS

» Florida State's wide receivers group showcases a young group of dynamic playmakers, evidenced by a 14.0 yards-per-catch average in 2018, led by All-ACC selection Tamorrion Terry and D.J. Matthews.
» Terry broke FSU's freshman receiving record that had stood for 41 years with 744 yards receiving, and his team-high eight receiving touchdowns, one shy of the program's freshman record, ranked fourth among all receivers in the ACC.
» Terry showcased his big-play capabilities as he averaged 21.3 yards per reception and 39.1 yards on his eight touchdown catches. He became the first Seminole since Peter Warrick in 1998, and the second freshman in program history, with two 70-yard touchdown catches in the same season.
» Matthews ranked second on the team with 42 receptions last season and recorded his first 100-yard game with 133 yards and one touchdown on a career-best 10 receptions at North Carolina State.
» True freshmen Tre'Shaun Harrison and Keyshawn Helton also return looking to build off strong debuts. Both showed their athletic ability by contributing receiving, rushing and returning. Helton became the sixth freshman in FSU history with a 70-yard touchdown catch when he hauled in a 73-yard touchdown reception vs. No. 2 Clemson.
» Keith Gavin, who caught 26 passes for 415 yards and one touchdown in 2018, is the group's lone senior. He had two six-reception games last year and recorded a career-high 93 yards on six catches vs. Northern Illinois. His touchdown came on a 17-yard pass at rival Miami.

TIGHT ENDS

» FSU's tight ends are led by rising junior Tre' McKitty, who made 26 catches for 256 yards and two touchdowns in 2018. His receptions total ranked fourth among ACC tight ends and were the 12th-highest single-season total by a tight end in program history.
» The Seminoles also return rising junior Gabe Nabers, who appeared in all 12 games and caught three passes for 46 yards in 2018, and rising sophomore Camren McDonald, who saw action in the final 11 games of his true freshman campaign.

OFFENSIVE LINE

» Florida State started nine different offensive line combinations in 2018, tied for the most of any Power 5 team.
» The Seminoles return six offensive linemen with starting experience, with Cole Minshew's 23 starts the most among the group.

GAME NOTES: DEFENSE/SPECIAL TEAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE

» Florida State's defensive line has to replace All-ACC performers Brian Burns and Demarcus Christmas on the defensive line, but All-ACC selection Marvin Wilson leads a deep group of proven playmakers into 2019.
» Wilson, a rising junior from Houston, positioned himself among the nation's elite interior defensive linemen while appearing in all 12 games in 2018. He earned the team's Bobby Bowden Leadership Award after he finished the season with 42 tackles, including 4.5 for loss with 3.5 sacks, four quarterback hurries, two pass breakups and one forced fumble.
» At rival Miami, Wilson totaled six tackles, including 2.5 for loss with 2.0 sacks, while fighting off constant double teams from the 17th-ranked team in the nation.
» Joshua Kaindoh saw action in all 12 games with one start and recorded 19 tackles, including 4.5 for loss with 3.0 sacks, four quarterback hurries and one pass breakup.
» Rising sophomore Cory Durden earned action in all 12 games and earned a start at No. 3 Notre Dame. He ranked third among Seminoles with 6.0 tackles for loss, including 2.0 sacks, and also recorded 22 tackles, one quarterback hurry, one pass breakup and one blocked kick.
» Robert Cooper is another big body who will be counted on to anchor the interior of the line after he played in 11 games as a true freshman, registering 10 tackles with 0.5 for loss.

LINEBACKERS

» One year after replacing every starter, FSU returns every linebacker that started in 2018.
» Rising senior Dontavious Jackson became the first Seminole since 2001 with multiple 14-tackle games in the same season after registering a career-high 14 stops, 10 more than his previous single-game best, at Syracuse and tying that mark in FSU's 22-21 win vs. No. 22 Boston College.
» Jackson finished his junior season with 75 tackles, including 7.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, three pass breakups, one forced fumble, one interception and one quarterback hurry. He ranked second on the team in tackles and tackles for loss.
» DeCalon Brooks made seven starts at SAM linebacker and made a mark on nearly every statistical category with 46 tackles, 3.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, two pass breakups, two quarterback hurries, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.
» Leonard Warner III made four starts and Adonis Thomas earned two starts last year. The duo returns after combining for 54 tackles, 1.5 for loss, five quarterback hurries and one pass breakup.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

» FSU's most experienced, and potentially deepest, group is the defensive backfield, which returns four starters and nine who played last season.
» Stanford Samuels III led the team and ranked fourth in the ACC with four interceptions, the second-highest single-season total by a Seminole since 2008, and leads all current FSU players with six career interceptions.
» Hamsah Nasirildeen led Florida State with a career-best 91 tackles, the 10th-highest total in the ACC in 2018, which included four games with at least 10 stops. He also had one interception, two pass breakups and one quarterback hurry.
» Jaiden Lars-Woodbey shined at the STAR position as a true freshman in 2018. He earned Freshman All-America honors from ESPN after starting all 12 games and recording 58 tackles, including 4.5 for loss with 1.0 sack, eight pass breakups, three quarterback hurries and one forced fumble.
» Levonta Taylor, who started the first eight games while battling injuries, enters 2019 tied for the active career lead in the NCAA with two interception return touchdowns, a number that ranks 4th all-time at FSU. His 63-yard return that gave the Seminoles their final points late in the win vs. Samford was the 5th-longest in the ACC last season.
» Kyle Meyers also returns after each starting eight games in 2018. Meyers collected 29 tackles, including 4.0 for loss with 2.0 sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups, one forced fumble and one quarterback hurry. The New Orleans native was one of only three ACC defenders with multiple interceptions and multiple sacks in 2018.

SPECIAL TEAMS

» The Seminoles have experience in each area of special teams as FSU returns kicker Ricky Aguayo, punter and kickoff specialist Logan Tyler, punt returner D.J. Matthews, as well as Anthony Grant, Keyshawn Helton and Khalan Laborn, all of whom averaged more than 21.0 yards per kickoff return.
» Matthews enters 2019 third on the list of NCAA's active career leaders with an average of 12.4 yards per punt return. He had a career day at No. 17 Miami, collecting a career-high 145 yards and one touchdown, the third-highest yards total in FSU history and the most in the NCAA against an FBS opponent in 2018. His 74-yard punt return touchdown tied for the second-longest punt return in an ACC game last season.
» Aguayo, voted a team captain last year, enters his senior season ranked 5th on FSU's all-time career list with a .750 field goal percentage and 11th in program history with 267 points.
» Tyler led the ACC with an average of 43.2 yards per punt and 23 punts of 50-plus yards in 2018. The rising senior's career average of 42.4 yards per punt, which includes 49 punts of at least 50 yards, ranks 4th all-time at FSU.

WILLIE TAGGART

HEAD COACH

2nd season at FSU | 10th season as head coach

Florida State hired Florida native Willie Taggart to be its 10th full-time head football coach on Dec. 5, 2017. Taggart is considered one of the best offensive minds in the country and has already proven to be a relentless and effective recruiter.

Hired with less than three weeks before the first-ever Early Signing Period, Taggart secured the 11th-ranked recruiting class in the nation in 2018. That season, he began a rebuild of the culture that included 25 student-athletes making their collegiate debut and 19 starting as a Seminole for the first time. Freshman All-American Jaiden Woodbey, who became only the ninth true freshman in the last 20 years to start a season opener at FSU, led a group of 15 true freshmen that earned playing time in 2018. Wide receiver Tamorrion Terry broke the FSU freshman record with 744 receiving yards, topping a record that had stood since 1976, and tied the program freshman record with two 100-yard receiving games. His eight receiving touchdowns ranked third in the ACC and were one shy of FSU's freshman record.

Five Seminoles earned All-ACC acclaim, led by first-team selection and Bednarik Award semifinalist Brian Burns. During the season, FSU was recognized 11 times with a conference player of the week honor, including five awards following the victory vs. No. 22 Boston College that marked only the third time in program history with five weekly conference recognitions.

The Seminoles passed for 3,241 yards, the most by an offense under a first-year head coach in program history, and the team's average of 270.1 passing yards per game ranked third in the ACC and 28th in the NCAA. Quarterback Deondre Francois returned from a season-ending injury in 2017 to start 11 games and moved into the program's top-10 lists for career passing yards, completions, total offense and 300-yard passing games. FSU produced two different 350-yard passers in the same regular season for the first time in program history after Francois topped the 350-yard mark in wins vs. Wake Forest and Northern Illinois and James Blackman, starting for an injured Francois, threw for 421 yards, the most ever by a Willie Taggart-coached team, at North Carolina State.

Taggart returned to the Sunshine State, where he was the head coach at the University of South Florida from 2013-16, after one season as head coach at the University of Oregon. He began his head coaching career at his alma mater, Western Kentucky University, from 2010-12 after serving as an assistant from 1999-2006. Between his tenures at Western Kentucky, he was an assistant coach at Stanford from 2007-09.

Taggart has led remarkable turnarounds at each of his three previous head coaching positions. In the season prior to his hire, the programs Taggart inherited were a combined 7-29, and the best team he took over before arriving at FSU was a 4-8 Oregon squad. His overall record is 52-57, including a 30-19 mark since the start of the 2015 season. From 2015-17, his offenses had the fourth-highest points-per-game average among FBS head coaches behind only Mike Gundy, Kliff Kingsbury and Urban Meyer.

Taggart jumped out to a hot start at Oregon, leading the Ducks to a 77-21 win in his first game in Eugene. The point total tied for the highest in the NCAA in 2017, was Oregon's highest since 1916 and included a school-record nine rushing touchdowns. The offensive fireworks continued as Oregon scored 42 first-half points in each of the first three games of the season, marking the first time in school history the program scored at least 42 points in one half in three straight games. The Ducks began the season 5-1 and completed the regular season with another offensive explosion, defeating rival Oregon State 69-10 for the team's seventh 40-point offensive output of the season.

Oregon ranked in the top 30 in the NCAA in 15 different statistical categories, including boasting the 12th-best rushing offense in the country rushing for 251.0 yards per game and the 18th-highest scoring offense averaging 36.0 points per game. On defense, the Ducks ranked 24th in the country in third-down defense allowing a .333 conversion percentage and 27th in fourth-down defense at .417. The defense had one of the best performances of the season against Arizona's Khalil Tate, who ranked seventh in the NCAA with an average of 128.3 rushing yards per game, holding him to only 32 yards rushing in a 48-28 victory.

Showcased by Taggart's Gulf Coast Offense, running back Royce Freeman rushed for 1,475 yards and ranked 10th in the country with an average of 122.9 rushing yards per game in 2017. His rushing total allowed him to break the program record for career rushing yards with 5,621 yards, the sixth-highest total in NCAA history. Freeman was a third-round draft pick by the Denver Broncos in the 2018 NFL Draft and led a group of four former Taggart pupils selected. The 2018 NFL Draft marked the fourth straight year at least three former Taggart players were taken.

Taggart returned home to the Tampa Bay area prior to the 2013 season to take over a South Florida team that won three games in 2012 and turned the Bulls into one of the most exciting programs in the country by 2016. In his final year at the helm in Tampa, Taggart led South Florida to a 10-2 record and No. 25 ranking in the final regular season poll, the team's first ranking since 2011 and only the second time in program history the Bulls were ranked at the end of the regular season. His offense averaged 43.6 points per game, ranking seventh in the country, and was fifth in the nation averaging 291.8 rushing yards per game. The 2016 season also marked the first time since 2010 the Bulls qualified for back-to-back bowl games.

With Taggart serving as the primary play caller, his offense broke 33 program records in 2016, including scoring, total touchdowns, total yards, rushing yards, yards per play, yards per rush and points per game. Quarterback Quinton Flowers was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year after becoming the first USF player to post 2,000 yards passing and 1,000 yards rushing in the same season, highlighting a program-record 10 all-conference selections.

Taggart helped build the offensive juggernaut with the top-ranked recruiting classes in the AAC in both 2014 and 2015. He also oversaw a vast improvement in the classroom while at USF, which improved its Graduation Success Rate in each of his four seasons and boasted a program-record 38 academic all-conference honorees in 2015.

Willie Taggart Head Coaching History
2018	Florida State	5-7
2017	Oregon	7-5
2016	South Florida	10-2
2015	South Florida	8-5
2014	South Florida	4-8
2013	South Florida	2-10
2012	Western Kentucky	7-5
2011	Western Kentucky	7-5
2010	Western Kentucky	2-10
Total		52-57

His first head coaching job was one of the most difficult reclamation projects in the country, taking over his alma mater that had lost 20 games in a row. He quickly led Western Kentucky to its first two winning seasons since transitioning from FCS to FBS and in 2012 saw the program reach its first bowl game. The Hilltoppers had a 12-2 stretch from Oct. 2011 through Oct. 2012 with their only two losses coming to No.1-ranked LSU and top-ranked Alabama. Taggart again made a splash in recruiting as he signed the top class in the Sun Belt in 2010 and 2011.

Prior to being named head coach at WKU, Taggart was the running backs coach at Stanford, where he helped tutor 2009 Doak Walker Award winner, Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year and consensus first-team All-American Toby Gerhart. That year, Gerhart's average of 144.7 rushing yards per game helped the Cardinal rank second in the Pac-10 and 11th in the nation with 224.3 yards per game on the ground and break the school's single-season rushing record that had stood for 60 years with 2,481 total yards. The team also led the Pac-10 in total offense with an average of 441.4 yards per game.

Taggart's time as an assistant at Western Kentucky started in 1999 as wide receivers coach before shifting to coach quarterbacks in 2000, a position group he continued to coach for the rest of his time at WKU. He added co-offensive coordinator duties for the 2001 and 2002 seasons and served as assistant head coach for his final four years.

Taggart helped direct an offense that set school records with 432 points, 5,749 yards of total offense and 263 first downs on the way to the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA national championship. That season, the Hilltoppers ranked second in the nation in pass efficiency and sixth in rushing yards per game. The offense saved its best performances for the playoffs, where it averaged 38.8 points per game in the four postseason wins.

Under Taggart's guidance from 2003-06, quarterback Justin Haddix set school records with 8,890 yards of total offense, a 57.1 completion percentage, 50 touchdowns and a 137.28 pass efficiency rating. Haddix also ranked second in program history with 541 completions and 7,929 passing yards.

Taggart transitioned to coaching after authoring a playing career that ranks among the best in WKU history. He was the program's starting quarterback all four years and broke 11 school records, highlighted by his 47 rushing touchdowns, and left school holding the NCAA Division I record for rushing yards by a quarterback. He also ranked second in program history with 286 points, a 127.71 pass efficiency rating and 3,997 rushing yards and tied for third with 17 100-yard rushing games and for fourth with 30 touchdown passes.

He earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Western Kentucky in 1998. In 2009 he was inducted into the WKU Athletic Hall of Fame, and in 2018 he had the distinction of being honored as one of three captains on Western Kentucky's All-Century Team, a group of the 29 best student-athletes in the first 100 years of WKU football.

Taggart was recruited to Western Kentucky following a prep career at Bradenton's Manatee High School. There, he led the Hurricanes to a 5A state title as a junior and was a first-team all-state and all-conference selection as a senior after directing Manatee to the state championship game for the second straight year.

Taggart and his wife, Taneshia, have two sons, Willie Jr. and Jackson, and one daughter, Morgan.

WILLIE TAGGART: WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"I am really excited to see Coach Taggart continue the great tradition at FSU. He will be a great role model for our players and institution. Congrats on becoming the head coach at FSU! We are excited that you are excited about being a part of the rich tradition at FSU and that you want to leave a legacy of excellence."
-Charlie Ward
1993 National Champion
1993 Heisman Trophy winner
College Football Hall of Fame

"He has so much energy. He always comes with energy, and it rubs off on everybody. He sets such a great example that way. He has a great technical mind for the game of football and is very detailed. He is a tremendous motivator of co-workers and players and a true gentleman. He always treats everybody with such great respect."
-Jim Harbaugh
Michigan Head Coach
2011 NFL Coach of the Year

"Willie Taggart is a man of integrity, a man of faith and a great husband and father first and foremost. Willie, Taneshia, Willie Jr., Jackson and Morgan are family to us. We love the Taggarts. Willie is a great leader, a great football coach and a proven recruiter. He is a creative and fundamentally sound football coach, who leads by example. Willie is all about making a difference in young men's lives. He knows how to treat people and that's a big part of what makes him who he is and why he is so successful."
-John Harbaugh
Baltimore Ravens Head Coach
Super Bowl XLVII Champion

"I am thrilled to see Coach Taggart lead our football program at FSU. I have witnessed very closely his past successes at USF and Oregon. He has changed the mindset and culture, repaired relationships and given clear direction to our student-athletes. Many of us former players are very supportive of him and his staff and are looking to help him succeed on and off the field."

HARLON BARNETT

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DBs

2nd season at FSU | 17th season as college coach

Harlon Barnett enters his second season as Florida State's defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2019.

In 2018, he directed a defense that ranked second in the ACC and 20th in the NCAA holding opponents to only 3.52 yards per rush. The run defense held nine of 12 opponents under their season yards-per-carry average, kept three teams from reaching 100 yards on the ground and allowed only 16 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-lowest total in the conference. The Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 17th in the NCAA in fourth-down defense and also ranked fifth in the conference in rushing defense, third-down defense and passes intercepted.

Brian Burns, Demarcus Christmas and Marvin Wilson earned All-ACC recognition, and Burns was also a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. Barnett also oversaw the development of Jaiden Woodbey, who became only the ninth true freshman to start a season opener for FSU in the last 20 seasons and was named a Freshman All-American after starting all 12 games and collecting 58 tackles, 4.5 for loss with 1.0 sack, seven pass breakups and one forced fumble. Sophomore Stanford Samuels III led the team with four interceptions, the second-highest single-season total by a Seminole since 2008 and the fourth-highest total in the ACC in 2018, and fellow sophomore Hamsah Nasirildeen posted a team-high 91 tackles.

Barnett joined the Garnet and Gold following an 11-year run coaching defensive backs at his alma mater, Michigan State. He was promoted to associate head coach while retaining co-defensive coordinator responsibilities in 2017 after serving as assistant head coach and co-defensive coordinator for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. During his time in East Lansing, the Spartans were 100-45 with three Big Ten championships and were selected for the College Football Playoff in 2015.

At Michigan State, he coached three All-Americans, one Thorpe Award winner, eight different first-team All-Big Ten performers and a total of 27 all-conference recognitions. He also tutored back-to-back Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year winners after Darqueze Dennard won the award in 2013 and Kurtis Drummond claimed it in 2014. Seven of his defensive backs have been selected in the NFL Draft, including Dennard taken 24th overall in 2014 by the Cincinnati Bengals and Trae Waynes picked 11th overall in 2015 by the Minnesota Vikings to become the highest-drafted Spartan in the modern era of the NFL Draft.

In 2017, Barnett directed a unit that led the Big Ten and ranked second in the NCAA in rushing defense, allowing only 95.3 yards per game on the ground. The team also ranked seventh in the NCAA in total defense by holding opponents to 297.6 yards per game, 18th in third-down defense with a conversion percentage of only .328, 19th in the country in scoring defense, allowing an average of 20.0 points per game, and had the nation's 17th-best passing efficiency defense rating. He was nominated for the Broyles Award, which is given annually to college football's top assistant coach.

Sophomore safety David Dowell earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition, and freshman cornerback Josiah Scott was a third-team all-conference selection, first-team Freshman All-American and a member of the Big Ten's All-Freshman Team. Under Barnett's tutelage, Dowell became only the second Spartan sophomore defensive back to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors and first since 1983, and Scott made 12 starts in 2017, the most by a true freshman position player in head coach Mark Dantonio's 11 seasons at MSU.

In his first season coordinating the defense, Michigan State won 12 games and the Big Ten championship on its way to the College Football Playoff semifinal at the Cotton Bowl. The Spartans forced 28 turnovers, the ninth-highest total in FBS, while also ranking in the top-25 in rush defense, sacks and scoring defense. Six times that season MSU held its opponent to less than 100 yards rushing. In 2014, he led Drummond and Waynes to All-America honors as Drummond became just the fifth All-American safety from Michigan State.

The Spartans had a historic stretch of defensive dominance from 2011-14 when Michigan State was the only FBS team to rank in the top-10 in total defense each of the four years and became only the second Big Ten team to lead the conference in rushing defense four straight years since the conference started recognizing statistical champions in 1985. The rush defense ranked in the top-two of the NCAA for three of Barnett's final five seasons, including an NCAA-best 88.5 yards per game in 2014.

The 2013 defensive backfield was highly acclaimed as all four starting defensive backs received All-Big Ten honors, including three first-team selections. That year, Dennard won the Thorpe Award as the nation's best defensive back and became the first cornerback in program history to earn unanimous first-team All-America honors.

In 2012, Michigan State ranked third in the nation and first in the Big Ten with a pass efficiency defense rating of 98.8. The Spartans also led the conference with 14 interceptions, ranked second in the Big Ten with 77 passes defended and tied for third with 63 pass breakups. Dennard and Johnny Adams both earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition as the Spartans swept the cornerback spots.

In 2010 and 2011 all four of Barnett's starters were named to the All-Big Ten Team as MSU grabbed 35 interceptions over those two seasons. The 2010 squad helped lead Michigan State to its first conference championship since 1990 by ranking in the top-25 in pass breakups, passes defended and interceptions. In 2011, the Spartans led the Big Ten and tied for 12th in FBS with 18 interceptions while also ranking 11th in pass defense and 18th in pass efficiency defense.

In his first season at Michigan State, Barnett's secondary ranked fourth in the Big Ten in pass defense and collected 12 interceptions, which were the most for the Spartans since 2003. His 2008 defensive backfield, led by first-team All-Big Ten selection and Thorpe Award finalist Otis Wiley, recorded 14 interceptions and broke up 50 passes.

Barnett moved to East Lansing with Dantonio after spending three seasons on his staff at Cincinnati and coaching four defensive backs to all-conference honors. In his first season, Barnett directed a secondary that ranked first in Conference USA and 26th in FBS by allowing only 194.2 passing yards per game. In 2006, Cincinnati had the Big East's third-ranked pass efficiency defense with a rating of 109.3 that ranked 23rd in the nation.

Barnett began his collegiate career as a graduate assistant on LSU's coaching staff in 2003, where he reunited with his former position coach at MSU Nick Saban. That year, the Tigers won the BCS National Championship, the program's first national title since 1958, after defeating Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl to complete a 13-1 season. The Cincinnati native started coaching in his hometown, serving two seasons as secondary coach and three more as defensive coordinator at Princeton High School.

Barnett authored an impressive career on the gridiron at Michigan State, compiling 154 tackles, six interceptions and 13 pass breakups. He was a three-year starter for the Spartans and earned first-team All-America honors in 1989 when he helped Michigan State rank No. 1 in the Big Ten in rushing defense and total defense. As a sophomore, he helped the Spartans win the Big Ten title and claim their first Rose Bowl victory in 32 years.

His seven-year NFL career began when he was selected in the fourth round of the 1990 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns. After three seasons in Cleveland, Barnett played the next two seasons with the New England Patriots before two seasons with the Minnesota Vikings.

Barnett earned his bachelor's degree in communication from Michigan State in 1990. He and his wife Tammy have two children, Todd and Tori.

KENDAL BRILES

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QBs

1st season at FSU | 12th season as college coach

Kendal Briles is in his first season as Florida State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after being announced on Dec. 23, 2018.

Briles came to FSU having served as an offensive coordinator at Baylor during the 2015 and 2016 seasons, Florida Atlantic in 2017 and Houston in 2018. He took over play-calling responsibilities prior to the Cotton Bowl at the end of the 2014 season, and in his first game the Bears passed for 601 yards, an NCAA bowl record, and scored 41 points on a Michigan State defense that entered the game allowing an average of 19.9 points per game. Beginning with that game, his offenses have averaged 41.8 points per game over the last four years.

Briles coordinated one of the most explosive offenses in the nation in 2018. Under his direction, Houston averaged 43.9 points per game, ranking fifth in the nation, and 512.3 yards of total offense, the seventh-highest total in FBS. The Cougars were one of three teams to rank in the top-25 in passing and rushing offense, averaging 295.5 passing yards and 216.8 rushing yards per game to rank 16th and 24th, respectively. The offense scored at least 30 points in each of the first 12 games, including an NCAA-best 10 games of at least 40 points, and scored in 47 of 52 quarters in 2018. Houston opened the season with a program-record eight straight games of 40 points or more. The Cougars had 42 scoring drives of less than two minutes, which more than doubled their 2017 total of 18. Houston also ranked fifth in the country with 92 plays of 20-plus yards, and its 44 plays covering at least 30 yards were seventh in FBS.

Junior quarterback D'Eriq King flourished under Briles' direction, putting together one of the best seasons in the nation. King, who was injured in the team's 11th game, needed only 10 games to break the American Athletic Conference's single-season touchdown responsibility record with 50. His average of 27.5 points responsible for per game led the nation and was four points higher than the next-closest competitor, Heisman Trophy finalist Dwayne Haskins. King also led the AAC in total offense, passing touchdowns, passing efficiency and completion percentage. His 36 passing touchdowns ranked fifth in the nation, while his pass efficiency rating of 167.0 and his 332.4 yards of total offense per game ranked seventh. King, who was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award, had at least two passing touchdowns and one rushing score in all 10 games he finished in 2018, the longest streak by an FBS player in more than 20 years, and against USF became only the 13th player in FBS history to pass for 400 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game.

At FAU, Briles directed an offense that ranked sixth in the country with an average of 285.3 rushing yards per game, eighth with an average of 40.6 points per game and ninth with 498.4 yards of total offense per game. He helped lead an Owls team that won three games the year before to an 11-3 record, the program's first Conference USA championship and a victory in the Boca Raton Bowl. Running back Devin Singletary became FAU's first Associated Press All-American and was named C-USA MVP after leading the nation with a program- and conference-record 32 rushing touchdowns, the third-highest total in FBS history, and 33 total touchdowns. Singletary also ranked fourth in the country with 1,920 rushing yards, the fifth-highest total all-time in C-USA. Quarterback Jason Driskel led C-USA in completion percentage, with the sixth-best percentage in FBS, and passing efficiency.

Briles spent the first nine years of his coaching career at Baylor helping elevate the program to historic heights, including back-to-back Big 12 championships, behind a record-setting offense. He served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for his final two seasons following three years as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach and four seasons coaching inside receivers. He also was the recruiting coordinator from 2012-14 after coordinating the offense's recruiting efforts from 2008-11 and was named the Big 12's Recruiter of the Year in 2013 and 2014.

In 2015, Briles was a finalist for the Broyles Award after his first season coordinating Baylor's offense resulted in the Bears leading the NCAA with 48.1 points per game and 616.2 yards of total offense, the third-highest single-season average in NCAA history, while also ranking second with 326.7 rushing yards per game. That year, guard Spencer Drago was a unanimous All-American and receiver Corey Coleman won the Biletnikoff Award as those two highlighted nine offensive players on the All-Big 12 teams. Baylor ended the season by rolling up an NCAA bowl-record 645 rushing yards and a Russell Athletic Bowl-record 756 yards of total offense to defeat No. 10 North Carolina. The 2016 team led the Big 12 in rushing offense and tackles for loss allowed and advanced to a bowl game for a school-record eighth straight season. In 2013, he helped Baylor average 618.8 yards of total offense per game, the second-highest season average in NCAA history.

During his seven years as the Bears' wide receivers coach, he tutored four All-Americans and five eventual NFL receivers, including Terrance Williams and Kendall Wright. Williams, who was a third-round pick by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2013 NFL Draft, broke the Baylor single-season receiving record and led the nation with 1,832 yards on his way to being only the sixth unanimous All-American in program history. Wright, the 20th overall selection in the 2012 NFL Draft, was an All-American in 2011 and broke every major school receiving record.

As a quarterback in high school, Briles was named the Texas 4A Offensive Player of the Year in each of his final two seasons, during which he piled up 9,322 yards of total offense and accounted for 98 touchdowns. Briles began his collegiate playing career at Texas, where he redshirted in 2001 before appearing in seven games at safety and intercepting two passes as a redshirt freshman. He transferred to Houston and moved to wide receiver, grabbing 70 receptions for 680 yards and one touchdown. He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Houston in 2005 and was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 2014.

Briles and his wife, Sarah, have two sons, Jaytn and Kru, and one daughter, Kinley.

DAVID KELLY

RECRUITING COORDINATOR

2nd season at FSU | 21st season as college coach

David Kelly was officially added to the Florida State program on Jan. 19, 2018, bringing more than 30 years of experience to his position. After also coaching the Seminoles' wide receivers in 2018, Kelly is focusing on his role as recruiting coordinator in 2019.

He was on head coach Willie Taggart's staffs at Oregon and South Florida, serving as assistant athletic director for football recruiting operations and director of player personnel, respectively. He has coached wide receivers at some of the top programs in the country, including LSU, Georgia Tech, Stanford and UCF, and coached running backs at Georgia following a successful run as head coach at Dunwoody High School in Georgia.

In 2018, Kelly tutored a young group of dynamic playmakers that helped Florida State pass for 3,241 yards, the most by an offense under a first-year head coach in program history, and rank third in the ACC and 28th in the NCAA with an average of 270.1 passing yards per game. The receivers group, which featured three freshmen and one sophomore among the top contributors, combined for 186 receptions for 2,604 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Senior Nyqwan Murray and freshman Tamorrion Terry both earned All-ACC acclaim after tying for the team lead with 744 receiving yards. Terry's total broke the Florida State freshman record that had stood for 41 years, and he also tied the program's freshman record with two 100-yard receiving games. His team-high eight touchdowns tied for fourth among all ACC receivers and were one shy of FSU's freshman record. Murray led the Seminoles with 54 receptions and ranked seventh in the ACC with an average of 4.5 catches per game. Murray and Terry each also made game-winning touchdown grabs in the final two minutes, with Murray taking a 58-yard catch-and-run for the final points in a 28-24 win at Louisville with 1:13 remaining and Terry hauling in a 74-yard bomb with 1:49 left in a 22-21 victory vs. No. 22 Boston College.

The receivers consistently showed big-play prowess as the group averaged 14.0 yards per reception and tied for the ACC lead with three 70-yard passing plays. Terry ranked fifth in the country with an average of 21.3 yards per reception and averaged 39.1 yards on his eight touchdown catches. Terry was the first Seminole since Peter Warrick in 1998, and the second freshman in program history, with two 70-yard touchdown catches in a season, and fellow freshman Keyshawn Helton added a 73-yard score against Clemson. Prior to the 2018 season featuring three 70-yard touchdown grabs by freshmen, there had only been five 70-yard touchdown catches made by a freshman in FSU's history.

In the previous two seasons, Kelly played a vital role in the recruiting operations at Oregon and South Florida. He is a highly respected coach and recruiter with experience at the high school level, ACC, SEC, Pac-12, Conference USA and, most recently, in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos. He was named one of the top 25 college football recruiters in the nation by ESPN in 2010 and by Rivals in 2009.

He previously was at UCF, where he served as the assistant head coach and wide receivers coach from 2007-11 after spending 2006 as the program's director of high school relations. In 2010, the Knights won 11 games, captured the Conference USA championship and defeated Georgia in the Liberty Bowl for the first bowl win in program history. In his first season as a coach at UCF, he helped the Knights compile a 10-4 record and win the conference championship.

Kelly's group developed depth every season as the offense counted on contributions from multiple wide receivers. In 2007, true freshman Kamar Aiken caught a team-high five touchdowns and was one of three receivers with at least 20 catches. Aiken made nine touchdown catches in 2009, the most by a UCF receiver since 2005, as part of a 44-catch campaign, and Rocky Ross made 41 receptions. Ross also received Academic All-America honors that season for his work in the classroom.

Before going to Orlando, Kelly was the associate head coach and wide receivers coach at Duke for two seasons. In 2002 and 2003 he coached at Stanford as the Cardinal's offensive coordinator and associate head coach.
He was the wide receivers coach at Georgia Tech in 2000 and 2001, where he developed the best wide receiver corps in the ACC to help the Yellow Jackets win 17 games and make two bowl appearances. While he was in Atlanta, he guided Kelly Campbell to first-team All-ACC honors in 2001. Campbell finished his career as the school's all-time leader in career receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions.

His first collegiate wide receivers job came at LSU, where he mentored the Tigers' receivers and tight ends from 1996-99. In each of his first two seasons LSU earned a share of the SEC Western Division crown. The team also appeared in the Peach Bowl twice and the Independence Bowl while he was in Baton Rouge.

Kelly's first full-time college coaching opportunity came as Georgia's running backs coach in 1994 and 1995. There, he coached Pro Football Hall of Famer Terrell Davis, Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward and Robert Edwards, among others. Davis was drafted by the Denver Broncos in the 1995 NFL Draft and became the organization's all-time leading rusher. He was named MVP of Super Bowl XXXII and helped the Broncos win back-to-back championships with a victory in Super Bowl XXXIII. Kelly attended Davis' NFL Hall of Fame enshrinement ceremony in August of 2017. Ward had a 14-year NFL career with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was named to the Steelers' All-Time Team. He won two Super Bowls with the Steelers and was named MVP of Super Bowl XL. Edwards was the 18th overall selection in the 1998 NFL Draft and played six seasons of professional football.

Kelly was the head coach at Dunwoody High School in Georgia for 10 seasons and earned a record of 80-36-1. In 1993, he capped his career with a 15-0 record and the Georgia 4A state championship. That year's team was ranked No. 3 in the final USA Today national poll, and Kelly was named Georgia's Coach of the Year by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

Kelly began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Furman after earning four letters. During his playing career, he saw time at wide receiver, running back and cornerback for the Paladins. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Furman in 1979 and completed his master's degree in education at Furman in 1981. He and his wife, Belinda, have one daughter, Brittany, who is an aspiring model.

MARK SNYDER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

2nd season at FSU | 31st season as college coach

Mark Snyder was hired on head coach Willie Taggart's initial coaching staff and is in his second season at Florida State in 2019 having taken over special teams coordinator duties.

Snyder came to Tallahassee with 29 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 12 as either a head coach or defensive coordinator, and has been on staffs that have won four national championships. He spent the previous three seasons as special teams coordinator at Michigan State, where he also coached the defensive ends and linebackers. During his time in East Lansing, the Spartans won 25 games, including the 2015 Big Ten championship, and played in the College Football Playoff.

His first season at Tallahassee, during which he served as defensive ends coach, featured first-team All-ACC performer Brian Burns dominating offenses in the conference. Burns ranked first in the ACC with 15.5 tackles for loss and 10.0 sacks in conference play, and his season sacks-per-game average led the ACC and ranked eighth in the NCAA. Burns also ranked third in the conference in forced fumbles per game and fifth in tackles for loss per game, leading a group of defensive ends that totaled 24.0 tackles for loss, 14.0 sacks and 16 quarterback hurries in 2018.

As a team, the Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 20th in the NCAA holding opponents to only 3.52 yards per rush. The run defense held nine of 12 opponents under their season yards-per-carry average, kept three teams from reaching 100 yards on the ground and allowed only 16 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-lowest total in the conference. The Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 17th in the NCAA in fourth-down defense and also ranked fifth in the conference in rushing defense, third-down defense and passes intercepted.

In 2017, Snyder's defensive line helped Michigan State lead the Big Ten and rank second in the NCAA in rushing defense, allowing only 95.3 yards per game on the ground. The team also ranked seventh in the NCAA in total defense by holding opponents to 297.6 yards per game, 18th in third-down defense with a conversion percentage of only .328, 19th in the country in scoring defense, allowing an average of 20.0 points per game, and had the nation's 17th-best passing efficiency defense rating.

Sophomore defensive end Kenny Willekes thrived under Snyder's tutelage in 2017. The former walk-on led the Spartans in tackles for loss with 14.5 and in sacks with 7.0, totals that also ranked sixth in the Big Ten. Willekes was a third-team All-Big Ten selection and a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award. Sophomore defensive tackles Mike Panasiuk and Raequan Williams both earned honorable mention all-conference honors.

Kicker Matt Coghlin was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and an honorable mention All-Big Ten performer after tying the MSU freshman record for field goals made with 15. He finished the season 15-of-19 on field goals, making his last eight in a row to end the season, and a perfect 38-of-38 on PAT attempts. Coghlin's makes included a game-winning 34-yard field goal as time expired to give MSU a 27-24 win over No. 7 Penn State. Punter Jake Hartbarger also garnered honorable mention All-Big Ten honors after averaging 42.0 yards per punt with a long of 62 yards and 12 punts of 50 yards or more.

During his first two seasons at Michigan State, he led four Spartan linebackers to All-Big Ten recognition, including two-time recipient Riley Bullough, who made a team-high 106 tackles as a junior before collecting 76 as a senior despite missing time due to an injury. Bullough was signed by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2017 and appeared in three games as a rookie.

In 2015, all three of Michigan State's starters earned All-Big Ten accolades, helping lead the team to the Big Ten championship and an appearance in the College Football Playoff semifinal at the Cotton Bowl. The linebackers helped pace a defense that ranked 11th in FBS in rushing defense, 25th in scoring defense and 26th in total defense.

The Spartans' special teams played a crucial role in the 2015 championship season and were directly responsible for two game-winning plays as time expired. At No. 12 Michigan, Jalen Watts-Jackson scooped up a fumble by the Wolverines' punter that he returned 38 yards for a touchdown to give the Spartans a 27-23 victory. The touchdown was later voted the No. 1 play during the 2015 season at the ESPN College Football Awards Show. At No. 2 Ohio State, kicker Michael Geiger made a 41-yard field goal to give the Spartans a 17-14 victory and snap the defending national champions' 23-game winning streak.

Snyder was Texas A&M's defensive coordinator from 2012-14. In 2014, he coached true freshman Myles Garrett, who broke school and SEC freshman records with 11.5 sacks and was a consensus first-team Freshman All-American and second-team All-SEC performer. Garrett went on to be picked No. 1 overall in the 2017 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns. In 2012, Snyder oversaw the development of consensus first-team All-American Damontre Moore, who recorded 85 tackles, including 21.0 for loss with 12.5 sacks, and was a third-round pick by the New York Giants in the 2013 NFL Draft. The Aggies finished the 2012 season with an 11-2 record and a win in the Cotton Bowl over Oklahoma behind a defense that ranked 26th in FBS by allowing an average of 21.8 points per game.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at South Florida in 2010 and 2011, Snyder oversaw a top-25 rushing defense both seasons. In 2010 the Bulls allowed 125.6 rushing yards per game and were 22nd in the country before improving to 15th in the nation with an average of 107.3 yards per game on the ground in 2011. The 2011 team collected 99 tackles for loss, the second-highest total in the nation, and ranked fourth in the country with 39 sacks, while the 2010 team ranked 17th in total defense and 22nd in scoring defense. Snyder coached first-team All-Big East defensive tackle Terrell McClain, who was selected in the third round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers, as well as Super Bowl champions Jacquian Williams, who won Super Bowl XLVI with the New York Giants, and Kayvon Webster, who won Super Bowl 50 with the Denver Broncos.

Snyder was the head coach at Marshall for five seasons, during which he led the program's transition from the Mid-American Conference to Conference USA. He won 22 games, including a 6-6 mark and berth in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl in 2009, and produced 40 all-conference selections, led by 2006 Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year Albert McClellan. Defensive end Vinny Curry was the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year and won Super Bowl LII as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. Running back Ahmad Bradshaw was a two-time all-conference performer before being selected in the seventh round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. He helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLII and Super Bowl XLVI while becoming only the eighth running back in NFL history to be the leading rusher in multiple Super Bowls.

Snyder spent four seasons at Ohio State, helping the Buckeyes win the 2002 national championship and post a 40-11 record from 2001-04. That 2002 squad ranked second in the nation in scoring defense, allowing an average of 13.1 points per game, and third in rushing defense, giving up only 77.7 yards per game on the ground. In 2003, Ohio State ranked second in the country in rushing defense, 10th in total defense and 16th in scoring defense while putting together an 11-2 record and a No. 4 final ranking.

While in Columbus, Snyder oversaw the development of first-team All-American and three-time first-team All-Big Ten linebacker A.J. Hawk, who won the Lombardi Award and was the No. 5 overall pick by the Green Bay Packers in the 2006 NFL Draft. He also coached Bobby Carpenter, the 18th overall selection in the 2006 NFL Draft, Rob Reynolds, a fifth-round draft pick in 2004, Cie Grant, a third-round selection in 2003, and Matt Wilhelm, who was a first-team All-American before being picked in the fourth round of the 2003 NFL Draft.

Prior to his time at Ohio State, he was the defensive ends coach at Minnesota for four seasons. While there, he helped develop first-team All-American and first-team All-Big Ten performer Lamanzer Williams, who led the nation with 18 sacks in 1997. He also coached Karon Riley, who led the Big Ten with 16 sacks in 1999 and earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition in 2000.

Snyder spent six seasons on staff at Youngstown State, where he helped the Penguins win three I-AA national championships and play in four consecutive national title games. At Youngstown State, he coached outside linebackers, inside linebackers and the secondary while spending two seasons coordinating the Penguins' special teams and one season as defensive coordinator. His first college coaching experience came at Central Florida, where he was a graduate assistant in 1989 before being promoted to linebackers coach in 1990.

As a player, he was an honorable mention All-American and first-team All-Southern Conference free safety at Marshall. He led the SoCon with a school- and conference-record 10 interceptions in 1987, and he made 124 tackles during his senior season to help the program reach its first national championship game.

Snyder graduated from Marshall in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in sport management and marketing. He and his wife, Beth, have three daughters, Chelsea, Lindsay and Shaylee.

ODELL HAGGINS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DL

26th season at FSU | 26th season as college coach

Odell Haggins enters his 26th season on Florida State's coaching staff in 2019 after head coach Willie Taggart announced on Dec. 26, 2017, that Haggins would be FSU's associate head coach and coach the defensive tackles, a group Haggins has led since 1996, before appointing him to oversee the entire defensive line in 2019.

Haggins was promoted to associate head coach in 2014 and has helped FSU post a 240-79-1 (.752) record with 13 ACC titles and two national championships in his time on staff. In recognition of his many accomplishments at Florida State, he was inducted in the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame class of 2018.

During the 2018 season he added two more all-conference linemen to his resume as senior Demarcus Christmas and sophomore Marvin Wilson both earned All-ACC recognition. Wilson's 42 tackles including 3.5 sacks, the second-highest total on the team, while Christmas recorded 28 tackles with 3.0 for loss and two pass breakups. The duo helped plug the inside of FSU's defense as the Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 20th in the NCAA holding opponents to only 3.52 yards per rush. The run defense held nine of 12 opponents under their season yards-per-carry average, kept three teams from reaching 100 yards on the ground and allowed only 16 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-lowest total in the conference.

Haggins was named Florida State's interim head coach on Dec. 1, 2017, and the next day led the Seminoles to a 42-10 victory over ULM that clinched bowl eligibility for an NCAA-record 36th straight year. He finished his time as interim head coach with a 2-0 record after leading FSU to a 42-13 win in the Independence Bowl that clinched a 41st consecutive winning season for the Seminoles. Haggins starred on Florida State's defensive line from 1986-89. He began his career as a tight ends/offensive line coach with the Seminoles in 1994 and took over the interior defensive line duties in 1996, where he has remained a fixture for more than 20 years.

Haggins has repeatedly developed future NFL pros while at Florida State. He has coached 18 defensive linemen that have been selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections Brodrick Bunkley in 2006, Travis Johnson in 2005, Corey Simon in 2000 and Andre Wadsworth in 1998. Wadsworth was the No. 3 overall pick and remained the highest-drafted player in FSU history until 2015 when Jameis Winston was selected No. 1 overall.

Named one of the six best defensive line coaches in college football by CBS Sports in 2008, Haggins has repeatedly turned out top-flight talent. In addition to the first-round selections, he has coached second-round picks Eddie Goldman and Timmy Jernigan, Pro Bowler Darnell Dockett, as well as Larry Smith, Andre Fluellen, Jerry Johnson, Julian Pittman and Letroy Guion.

Haggins has established himself as an outstanding recruiter, developer of talent and a role model to his players. He earned ACC Top Recruiter of the Year honors from ESPN in 2012. In 2014, Haggins was named one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com for the fourth consecutive year. He captured the same top-25 mention from 247Sports in 2016.

The 2017 version of FSU's defensive line was a dominant force in the middle as senior Derrick Nnadi, who would be taken in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, and redshirt junior Demarcus Christmas teamed up to wreak havoc in opponents' backfields. Nnadi was a third-team All-ACC selection after setting career-high marks with 53 tackles and 10.0 tackles for loss, while Christmas also posted career highs of 36 tackles and 4.5 tackles for loss. In 2016, the Seminoles ranked first in the nation in sacks per game and were fifth in the ACC in rushing defense while Nnadi garnered first-team all-conference recognition.

Haggins' defensive line anchored one of the nation's best defenses in 2015. The Seminoles ranked ninth in the country in scoring defense and allowed only 10 rushing touchdowns, fifth-fewest in the country, while improving from 17 sacks in 2014 to 32 in 2015. Two defensive linemen captured all-conference honors as Nile Lawrence-Stample was a first-team selection and Nnadi was on the third team. In 2014, Goldman captured third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and was a first-team All-ACC selection. The Seminoles advanced to the first-ever College Football Playoff, set an ACC and FSU record with a 29-game winning streak and captured the program's third straight ACC championship that season.

A staunch interior defense played a prominent role in helping Florida State to its third national championship in the 2013 season. Jernigan enjoyed another fine season as he earned All-America nods from several organizations including the Football Writers Association of America, Associated Press and USA TODAY. The high-powered run-stuffer in the trenches led a defensive front that surrendered just seven rushing touchdowns, the fewest in the nation. Florida State's defensive tackles paved the way for the nation's top scoring defense and the third-best total defense. The work of the front four was noticeable on several fronts, including allowing just 124.8 yards per game to opposing rushers. Opponents averaged just 3.3 yards per rush against the stout defensive front of the Seminoles, and FSU continued its strong pass rush, racking up 35 sacks.

The 2012 season saw three Seminole defensive tackles earn All-ACC honors with senior Everett Dawkins and sophomore Jernigan capturing second-team recognition while senior Anthony McCloud picked up honorable-mention accolades. In part due to suffocating pressure up front, the Seminoles ranked second in the nation in total defense in 2012, yielding just 254.14 yards per contest. FSU allowed opposing running backs just 2.75 yards per carry, which tied for fourth in the country. Jernigan was productive in his first season under Haggins' tutelage, becoming a Freshman All-American in 2011 with 100 tackles, including 16.5 for loss. FSU's run defense allowed opposing backs to average just 2.35 yards per carry, which led all 120 FBS programs, and the Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense.

Haggins helped produce one of the best defensive lines in the nation in 2010 as the Seminoles ranked third in FBS in quarterback sacks per game and tied with Boise State for first nationally in total sacks with 48.

Haggins' 1999 defensive front included future NFL standouts Corey Simon and Jerry Johnson, who were instrumental in FSU's 12-0 run to the national championship. The Seminoles boasted the nation's top-ranked defense in 1998 and the No. 1 rushing defense in 1996 and 1997. The 2008 defense ranked first nationally in tackles for loss.

Haggins has won at every level as a player and a coach. He was on the front end of Florida State's dynasty years, starring at nose guard for the Seminoles. FSU posted a 39-8-1 record with Haggins on the defensive line, and he was part of four bowl-winning teams. He earned Kodak, Walter Camp and UPI All-America honors as a senior in 1989.

A ninth-round pick in the 1990 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, Haggins went on to play for the Buffalo Bills during their 1991 Super Bowl season. Following a three-year NFL career, he returned to Florida State, completed his degree and joined Bobby Bowden's staff following the Seminoles' 1993 national championship season.

Haggins and his wife, Robin, have one daughter, Amelia Grace.

RANDY CLEMENTS

OFFENSIVE LINE

1st season at FSU | 19th season as college coach

Randy Clements is in his first season as FSU's offensive line coach after being announced on Feb. 21, 2019.

Clements has nearly three decades of experience coaching offensive line and has spent 10 years working alongside FSU offensive coordinator Kendal Briles. Clements spent the 2018 season as Houston's run game coordinator and offensive line coach, returning to the school where he coached the offensive line from 2003-07. He was the offensive line coach at Baylor from 2008-16, holding the co-offensive coordinator title from 2008-11 and serving as run game coordinator from 2012-16. During the 14 seasons from 2003-16, he tutored 16 different all-conference offensive linemen and five All-Americans while producing the Big 12's Offensive Lineman of the Year four straight seasons from 2012-15.

In 2018, operating behind Clements' offensive line, Houston averaged 43.9 points per game, ranking fifth in the nation, and 512.3 yards of total offense, the seventh-highest total in FBS. The Cougars were one of three teams to rank in the top-25 in passing and rushing offense, averaging 295.5 passing yards and 216.8 rushing yards per game to rank 16th and 24th, respectively. The offense scored at least 30 points in each of the first 12 games, including an NCAA-best 10 games of at least 40 points, and scored in 47 of 52 quarters in 2018. Houston opened the season with a program-record eight straight games of 40 points or more. The Cougars had 43 scoring drives of less than two minutes, which more than doubled their 2017 total of 18. Houston also ranked fifth in the country with 92 plays of 20-plus yards, and its 44 plays covering at least 30 yards were seventh in FBS.

The offensive line, led by All-AAC honorable mention guard Mason Denley, was a model of stability as it started the same combination in 12 of 13 games in 2018. That group helped quarterback D'Eriq King, who was a finalist for the Manning Award and semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award, put together one of the best seasons in the nation. King averaged 27.5 points responsible for per game to lead the nation by more than four points than the next-closest competitor, Heisman Trophy finalist Dwayne Haskins.

Prior to his time at Houston, Clements was the offensive line coach for Southeastern University in 2017. That year, the Fire won the Mid-South Conference Sun Division and advanced to the NAIA Football Championship Series behind an offense that scored 55.1 points per game. The points average led NAIA and was propped by the No. 2 rushing offense of 330.4 yards and the third-best total offense per game average of 557.4. Southeastern also converted 50.7 percent of its 3rd-down attempts and 66.7 of its 4th-down attempts to rank fifth in both categories while allowing only 1.2 sacks per game.

Clements helped elevate the Baylor program to historic heights, including back-to-back Big 12 championships, behind a record-setting offense. The 2013 team, which won the school's first Big 12 title, led the nation with an average of 618.8 yards per game and 52.4 points per game while also ranking 13th with 259.7 rushing yards per game. The 2014 team led the nation in points per game with 48.2 and total offense per game with 581.5 while winning the program's second straight conference title and breaking the NCAA bowl record with 601 passing yards in the Cotton Bowl against No. 7 Michigan State. The 2015 squad led the NCAA with 48.1 points per game and 616.2 yards of total offense while also ranking second with 326.7 rushing yards per game. Baylor ended the season by rolling up an NCAA bowl-record 645 rushing yards and a Russell Athletic Bowl-record 756 yards of total offense to defeat No. 10 North Carolina.

While at Baylor, he coached lineman who earned a combined 13 All-Big 12 accolades and six All-America recognitions, including three unanimous selections. Jason Smith was an All-American, first-team All-Big 12 selection and the team's co-MVP in 2008 after his first season under Clements resulted in a Baylor-record 96 knockdown blocks. Smith was picked No. 2 overall by the St. Louis Rams in the 2009 NFL Draft, the highest-drafted player in school history and the Bears' first pick in the first round since 1996. Cyril Richardson was the conference's 2012 and 2013 Offensive Lineman of the Year and added unanimous All-American and Outland Trophy finalist to his profile in 2013. The next year, Spencer Drango was the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year and a consensus All-American before becoming a unanimous All-American, Academic All-American, NFF National Scholar-Athlete, Outland Trophy finalist and Offensive Lineman of the Year again in 2015. Richardson and Drango were drafted in 2014 and 2016, respectively, and Clements also tutored Danny Watkins, who was drafted 23rd overall in 2011 to become only the second offensive lineman in program history to be taken in the first round of the NFL Draft.

In his first stint at Houston, Clements' linemen earned eight All-Conference USA recognitions while blocking for three top-12 offenses in the nation, highlighted by the 2007 team averaging 513.2 yards per game to rank fourth nationally. After switching from tight end to left tackle, Sebastian Vollmer was developed into a second-round pick by New England in the 2009 NFL Draft and played his entire eight-year NFL career with the Patriots, appearing in four Super Bowls and winning two. Overall, Clements has coached 10 offensive linemen drafted into the NFL.

Clements began his coaching career as a student assistant working with the offensive line at Stephen F. Austin in 1986 and 1987. He played on the Lumberjacks' 1988 squad that posted a 10-2 record and advanced to the quarterfinal round of the I-AA playoffs. After earning his bachelor's degree in education from Stephen F. Austin in 1989, he coached offensive line at Stephenville High School in Texas from 1990-2002 and was the school's offensive coordinator for his final three years.

Clements and his wife, Polly, have two children, Jordan and Jayson.

RON DUGANS

WIDE RECEIVERS

1st season at FSU | 13th season as college coach

Former Seminole and 1999 national champion Ron Dugans was hired as FSU's wide receivers coach on Jan. 20, 2019.

Dugans returns to Florida State after three years as wide receivers coach at Miami. In his first two seasons there he also served as passing game coordinator before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator for the 2018 season. Prior to his time in Coral Gables, he coached wide receivers on Taggart's staff at South Florida in 2014 and 2015 following four years as Louisville's wide receivers coach. Dugans began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at FSU in 2005 and 2006, after which he was a coaching assistant with the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL and then served as wide receivers coach at Georgia Southern for three seasons.

In 2018, Dugans co-coordinated an offense that converted at least 45 percent of its third-down conversions in seven games after only reaching that benchmark twice the year before. In 2017, he helped direct the Hurricanes to a 10-win season that culminated with an appearance in the Capital One Orange Bowl. Braxton Berrios had career-high totals with 52 receptions, 634 yards and nine touchdowns while earning All-ACC recognition, the Jim Tatum Award as the ACC's top student-athlete and being a finalist for the Campbell Trophy. In Dugans' first season at Miami, he guided Ahmmon Richards to Freshman All-America and All-ACC honors after breaking UM's freshman receiving record with 934 yards. Senior Stacy Coley also was named All-ACC after becoming only the eighth Hurricane to accumulate 2,000 career receiving yards behind a career-high 754 yards in 2016.

Dugans' receivers broke USF's single-season touchdown record in both of his seasons at South Florida under Taggart. In 2014, Andre Davis set the Bulls' record with seven receiving scores despite missing four games due to injury. The following year, Dugans tutored Rodney Adams to a career-high 822 yards and a school-record nine receiving touchdowns that still stands as USF finished 8-5 and played in the Miami Beach Bowl.

Dugans helped lead a program revitalization in his four seasons at Louisville. The Cardinals were 23-3 over the 2012 and 2013 seasons, including 11-2 with a victory over Florida in the Sugar Bowl in 2012 and a 12-1 mark in 2013 that culminated with a win over Miami in the Russell Athletic Bowl. He guided wide receiver DeVante Parker to first-team All-AAC honors in 2013 as the junior caught 55 passes for 885 yards and 12 touchdowns. Parker, who was also a 2012 first-team All-BIG EAST selection after posting 10 touchdown receptions, caught 28 touchdowns in his first three seasons. Three Cardinal receivers caught 40 or more passes in 2013, including senior Damian Copeland who had a career-best 58 receptions for 780 yards for his second straight 50-catch season.

Prior to his time at Louisville, Dugans coached the receivers at Georgia Southern. Under Dugans' guidance, Raja Andrews broke numerous single-season school records in 2008, including 64 receptions, 873 yards and five 100-yard receiving games, while finishing the year ranked 15th nationally in receptions per game and 20th in receiving yards. Dugans started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at FSU, working in the strength and conditioning program in 2005 before working with the offense in 2006. He also served as a coaching assistant in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2007.

Dugans was a wide receiver at FSU from 1995-99, playing his first two seasons before taking a medical redshirt in 1997. He returned to start in 1998 and 1999, helping the Seminoles reach the BCS National Championship Game in both seasons. He caught six passes for 135 yards in the 1999 Fiesta Bowl against Tennessee and grabbed five receptions for 99 yards and two touchdowns in the 2000 Sugar Bowl win over Virginia Tech that gave FSU its second national championship and completed the first wire-to-wire season as the Associated Press' No. 1-ranked team. In his career, he made 105 receptions for 1,520 yards and seven touchdowns. He was selected by Cincinnati in the third round of the 2000 NFL Draft and played professionally for three seasons, compiling 89 catches for 797 yards and three touchdowns in 46 games.

A Tallahassee native, Dugans was a three-sport standout at Florida A&M University Developmental Research School. He played football, rushing for 730 yards and 10 touchdowns while adding 75 tackles and seven interceptions on defense as a senior, in addition to participating in basketball and track and field.

Dugans and his wife, Yasheka, have four children, Yasmin, Y'Allana, Yanni and Ron, Jr.

TELLY LOCKETTE

TIGHT ENDS

2nd season at FSU | 7th season as college coach

Telly Lockette is in his second season as tight ends coach at Florida State in 2019 after joining the Seminoles in December of 2017.

Lockette returned to his home state and reunited with head coach Willie Taggart as the pair worked together at South Florida for two seasons. Lockette spent the previous three seasons coaching running backs at Oregon State after serving in the same capacity at USF in 2013 and 2014.

Prior to entering college coaching, he coached two of Miami's most successful high school programs as the head coach at Miami Central and the offensive coordinator at Miami Northwestern, his alma mater. The esteemed list of players he coached in high school includes FSU's all-time rushing leader Dalvin Cook and fellow former Seminole running back and two-time Pro Bowl selection Devonta Freeman.

In his first season at Florida State, Lockette directed a group that consisted of recruited tight ends as well as converted fullbacks from the previous staff's offensive scheme. Lockette directed sophomore Tre' McKitty to 26 receptions, which ranked fourth among the ACC's tight ends, for 256 yards and his first two collegiate touchdowns. The tight end group also played a crucial role in blocking for an offense that ranked third in the ACC in passing offense, averaging 270.1 yards per game, while totaling the most passing yards in school history under a first-year head coach. The offense also topped the 400-yard mark in total offense five times.

In 2016 at Oregon State, Lockette directed a rushing attack that broke the school's single-season record with an average of 5.2 yards per carry. That season, the Beavers ranked fourth in the Pac-12 and 28th in the country in yards per rush. While in Corvallis, Lockette oversaw the development of Ryan Nall, who had the 10th-highest rushing average in the Pac-12 in 2017 and in 2016 totaled 1,165 yards from scrimmage and 15 touchdowns. Lockette also coached Artavis Pierce to Pac-12 All-Freshman honors in 2016. Nall, Pierce and Damien Haskins all earned Pac-12 Academic Team recognition while under Lockette's tutelage.

At South Florida, Lockette helped Coach Taggart establish the foundation for the Bulls' ascent to contenders in the American Athletic Conference. Lockette tutored Marlon Mack, the 2014 AAC Freshman of the Year and first-team all-conference selection who led the conference in rushing while becoming South Florida's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2005. In his collegiate debut, Mack rushed for a USF- and AAC-record 275 yards. Mack would go on to earn first-team all-conference honors in each of his three seasons and break 14 school records before being picked in the fourth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

At Miami Central, Lockette earned a 60-10 overall record and won two 6A state championships. The Rockets were ranked as the No. 1 high school team in the nation following their 2012 state title and were the country's No. 2 high school team after a state championship in 2010. Lockette, who also guided Miami Central to the 2011 state championship game, was the first coach in South Florida history to coach a team to three straight state title game appearances.

In addition to his state titles, Lockette had an undefeated record against teams in Dade and Broward Counties for a state-record three straight years. He also was tapped to coach in the Semper Fidelis All-American Bowl twice and was an assistant coach on the USA National Football Team. He was recognized as the Prep Coach of the Year by Nike, the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Herald and earned the Nike Sportsmanship Award.

His final season at Miami Northwestern featured an offense that averaged 43.3 points per game during a 15-0 season that culminated in the 6A state crown, the school's first since 1998. His explosive offense re-wrote the state record book, including breaking the record for points per game in a season. During his time as a high school coach, Lockette worked with more than 70 players who earned college scholarship offers.

Lockette was a standout linebacker at Idaho State during his collegiate playing days. He was a two-time All-American for the Bengals and was inducted into the Idaho State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2013.

Lockette earned a bachelor's degree in education from Idaho State in 1998. He and his wife, Shikira, have three children, Jakari, Tellek and Skylar.

DONTE' PIMPLETON

RUNNING BACKS

2nd season at FSU | 11th season as college coach

Donte' Pimpleton is in his second season as the Seminoles' running backs coach in 2019.

Pimpleton, who was college teammates with head coach Willie Taggart, has joined his staff for the fourth time. Pimpleton first coached with Taggart at Western Kentucky, where Pimpleton oversaw the wide receivers, before he joined Coach Taggart again at South Florida and Oregon, coaching running backs at both programs.

Last year, his group accounted for 1,769 all-purpose yards and was led by Cam Akers' team-high 866 all-purpose yards and eight touchdowns. Akers was a big-play threat and steady contributor for the Seminoles as his three runs of 50-plus yards, including an 85-yard rush that tied for the seventh-longest run in program history, tied for fourth in the ACC and he led the team in rushing in 10 of 12 games.

Akers recorded his fifth career 100-yard rushing game in the win vs. No. 22 Boston College as FSU produced a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game for the first time in more than two years. Senior Jacques Patrick moved into 16th on the program's all-time career rushing list in his one season under Pimpleton, rounding out his career with 1,790 yards to sit two spots ahead of Akers' 1,730 career yards.

In 2017 at Oregon, the Ducks ranked second in the Pac-12 and 13th in the NCAA with an average of 251.0 rushing yards per game, and the team's 40 rushing touchdowns tied for seventh in the nation. Oregon's rushing total was paced by six 300-yard games and 10 games of more than 200 yards on the ground. In the season opener, UO scored an FBS-high 77 points behind nine rushing touchdowns, the most in a game in 2017 by an FBS team.

Pimpleton coached Royce Freeman, a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and the Doak Walker Award, to second-team All-Pac 12 honors after finishing with 1,475 yards on the ground for an average of 122.9 yards per game. His per-game average ranked 10th in the country, and his 16 rushing touchdowns tied for 14th in the nation. Freeman ended his career with a school-record 5,621 rushing yards, the sixth-highest total in NCAA history. He also broke UO career records with 60 rushing touchdowns, which ranked 10th in college football history, 31 100-yard rushing games, 6,435 all-purpose yards and 64 total touchdowns. Freeman was selected in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, marking the second straight year a Pimpleton-coached back was drafted.

At South Florida, Pimpleton helped the Bulls to a program-best record of 11-2 in 2016 while completely rewriting the program's rushing record book. USF set new school records with 3,709 rushing yards, 47 rushing touchdowns, an average of 6.50 yards per rush, an average of 285.7 rushing yards per game, 77 total touchdowns scored, 569 points scored, an average of 43.8 points per game, 300 total first downs and 164 rushing first downs. The Bulls ranked second in the nation in yards per rush, fifth in rushing yards per game and 11th in total offense.

His debut season at USF also made its mark on the record books as the team broke records for most rushing yards with 3,205, highest rushing average of 5.41 yards per carry and most rushing yards per game with 246.5. The team's 28 rushing touchdowns in 2015 ranked second in team history at the time. Pimpleton tutored Marlon Mack for two seasons, helping the school's all-time leading rusher earn first-team all-conference honors in each season and break 14 school records before being picked in the fourth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

Before becoming a member of the USF staff, Pimpleton spent two seasons at Kentucky Wesleyan. He was the Panthers' wide receivers coach in 2013 before being elevated to offensive coordinator in 2014. That season, he directed an offense that broke 10 school records as a team while 13 different individual records fell. The 2014 squad also tied the school record for wins, matching a mark that had stood since 1999. He tutored Keelan Cole, who led Division II in receiving yards, receiving yards per game and receiving touchdowns in 2014 and in 2017 helped the Jacksonville Jaguars win their first division title since 1999.

In 2010, Pimpleton joined Coach Taggart's first staff at Western Kentucky. He served two seasons as an offensive quality control assistant before being promoted to wide receivers coach in 2012 and helping the Hilltoppers reach the first bowl game in program history. His first collegiate coaching opportunity came in 2009 when he was hired as an offensive quality control assistant at Louisville.

Pimpleton began his coaching career in the high school ranks in his hometown of Louisville, Kentucky, serving as wide receivers and defensive backs coach for one season at Iroquois High School before handling both roles for two years at his alma mater, Fern Creek High School. Before joining the University of Louisville staff, he spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Doss High School.

Pimpleton played quarterback and wide receiver at Western Kentucky following a prep career as an all-state quarterback at Louisville's Fern Creek High School. At WKU, he gained 1,425 rushing yards with 18 touchdowns and caught 13 passes for 165 yards and four touchdowns in a run-heavy offense. He helped lead the Hilltoppers to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship and earned honorable mention All-Gateway Conference honors in 2001. Following his collegiate career, he played three seasons in the Arena Football League and two more seasons in the American Indoor Football League.

Pimpleton earned a bachelor's degree in business and communications from Western Kentucky in 2002. He and his wife, Nicole, have one daughter, Anistyn.

RAYMOND WOODIE

LINEBACKERS

2nd season at FSU | 10th season as college coach

Raymond Woodie is in his second season coaching the Seminoles' linebackers in 2019 after joining head coach Willie Taggart's staff for the fourth time.

Woodie coached defensive ends and linebackers at Western Kentucky before serving as linebackers coach, assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at South Florida and then outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Oregon. He is one of only three staff members to be with Coach Taggart in every season of his head-coaching career.

In 2018, Woodie took over a position that returned only seven total starts among the entire linebacker corps. The group was led by Dontavious Jackson, who ranked second on the team with 75 tackles and became the first Seminole since 2001 to have multiple games of at least 14 tackles in the same season. Jackson, redshirt freshman DeCalon Brooks, sophomore Leonard Warner and true freshman Jaiden Woodbey, who earned Freshman All-America honors while starting all 12 games at the STAR position, all flashed versatility, stuffing each section of the stat sheet with a combined 217 tackles, including 16.0 for loss, one interception, 14 pass breakups, 10 quarterback hurries, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

The Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 20th in the NCAA holding opponents to only 3.52 yards per rush. The run defense held nine of 12 opponents under their season yards-per-carry average, kept three teams from reaching 100 yards on the ground and allowed only 16 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-lowest total in the conference. The Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 17th in the NCAA in fourth-down defense and also ranked fifth in the conference in rushing defense, third-down defense and passes intercepted.

Woodie orchestrated a nearly perfect kicking game in 2017 as Oregon finished the season 63-of-63 on PAT attempts and 9-of-12 on field goals. Additionally, the team's average of 22.73 yards per kickoff return ranked third in the Pac-12. Long snapper Tanner Carew earned first-team All-America honors from Phil Steele and was invited to the Senior Bowl, and freshman Brenden Schooler was a first-team All-Pac-12 selection as an all-purpose/special teams player. Kicker Adrian Schneider broke Oregon's school record with 51 career made field goals.

On defense, Woodie's outside linebackers made major contributions to a unit that ranked 23rd in the country with 25 turnovers forced, 22nd with an average of 7.2 tackles for loss per game and 24th in rushing defense by allowing 128.5 yards per game on the ground. The team's total defense ranking soared from 126th in 2016 to 46th in 2017.

At South Florida, Woodie held the title of assistant head coach for two seasons and coordinated the Bulls' defense during their record-breaking 2016 season. That year, USF won a school-record 11 games while the defense forced 26 turnovers to rank 18th in the country and returned three for touchdowns, tied for the 19th-highest total in the nation.

He also oversaw the linebackers at South Florida, coaching two to all-conference recognition. In 2014, Nigel Harris led the country and broke a school record with six forced fumbles. Woodie tutored the Houston Texans' sixth-round selection in the 2015 NFL Draft, Reshard Cliett, and also helped DeDe Lattimore and Harris reach the NFL.

In 2015, he was responsible for the Bulls' special teams and coached the sixth-best kickoff return unit in the country as USF finished the year with a program-record average of 26.66 yards per return. Kickoff returner Rodney Adams was a second-team all-conference selection after leading the American Athletic Conference and ranking sixth in the NCAA with his average of 29.1 yards per return. Adams was selected in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Woodie boasts an impressive resume on the recruiting trail and impacted Florida State immediately as he was ranked as the No. 2 recruiter in the ACC by 247Sports in 2018, despite having less than two months to recruit for the Seminoles after he was hired. Woodie earned AAC top recruiter recognition by Rivals in 2014 and was named the Sun Belt's Recruiter of the Year by Scout/FoxSports.com in 2012. He was also ranked as the No. 1 recruiter in the Pac-12 and No. 13 nationally by 247Sports during the 2017 season. He helped Coach Taggart sign the AAC's top classes in 2014 and 2015, directly recruiting nine of USF's 10 all-conference selections in 2016, and the highest-ranked classes in the Sun Belt in 2010 and 2011.

While at Western Kentucky, he recruited Venice, Florida, native Forrest Lamp and Lakeland, Florida, native Andrew Jackson to Bowling Green. Lamp was a second-round pick by the Los Angeles Chargers in the 2017 NFL Draft and Jackson was selected in the sixth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. They are two of seven Hilltoppers recruited by Woodie to play in the NFL.

Before entering college coaching with Taggart at Western Kentucky, Woodie was a high school head coach in South Florida for 13 seasons. He was the head coach at Palmetto High School from 2007-09 and led the Tigers to a district title in 2008. From 1997-2006, Woodie was the head coach at Bayshore High School following one season as the team's defensive coordinator and led the Bruins to the state playoffs seven times. When he took over as head coach he was only 23 years old, making him the youngest head coach in the state.

Woodie lettered as an outside linebacker and strong safety at Bethune-Cookman from 1992-95, where he earned GTE Academic All-America honors and was a I-AA All-American and first-team All-MEAC performer his final two seasons. As a junior, he broke the program's single-season record with 14.5 sacks. Following his collegiate career, Woodie spent one season playing for the CFL's British Columbia Lions.

A native of Palmetto, Florida, and graduate of Palmetto High School, Woodie graduated from Bethune-Cookman in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and earned his master's degree in education from National Louis University.

Woodie and his wife, Stephanie, have three children, Raymond, who is a freshman defensive back for the Seminoles, Alanah and Kaden.

2018 GAME RECAPS

Monday, Sept. 3, 2018
(20/20) Virginia Tech 24,
(19/19) Florida State 3
Tallahassee, Fla. | Doak Campbell Stadium

- Willie Taggart debuted as the 10th full-time head coach in Florida State history.
- Florida State's defense rose to the occasion after falling behind 10-0. The Seminoles forced seven consecutive Virginia Tech punts and added a fourth-and-goal stop from the 1-yard line to keep the game within striking distance. The Hokies managed just 85 yards on 29 plays on the seven drives ending in punts.
- The Seminoles outgained the Hokies 327-319, but suffered five turnovers, which the visitors converted into 10 points.
- Six first-time starters (defense/offense) were on the field for Willie Taggart's Florida State debut, including true freshman Star Jaiden Woodbey, who was joined by defensive end Walvenski Aimé, offensive tackle Jauan Williams, offensive guard Mike Arnold, tight end Tre' McKitty and receiver Ontaria Wilson.
- Sophomore Cam Akers' 85-yard run with 11:46 remaining to the Hokies 6-yard line was the longest non-scoring run in school history.
- Freshman Star Jaiden Woodbey became FSU's first true freshman starter since 2013, when cornerback Jalen Ramsey and defensive end DeMarcus Walker started at Pitt to launch the Seminoles' national championship campaign.
- Woodbey was second on the team with 9 tackles, including 1.5 for loss, one forced fumble and one quarterback hurry.
- Free safety Hamsah Nasirildeen led the Noles with 11 tackles, includng six solo stops.
- Defensive end Brian Burns finished with 6 tackles, including 1.5 sacks and 2 tackles for loss.
- QB Deondre Francois made a solid return to action after suffering a season-ending injury against Alabama in the 2017 opener. Francois completed 22-of-35 attempts for 233 yards and connected with seven different receivers.
- Sophomore tight end Tre' McKitty came into the game with one career reception, but shared the team lead with 5 catches for 25 yards.
- Three Noles - Tamorrian Terry (2-39), Khalan Laborn (1-37) and Ontaria Wilson (1-12) - collected their first career receptions in the opening half

Samford 26,
Florida State 36
Tallahassee, Fla. | Doak Campbell Stadium

- Willie Taggart recorded his first victory as the Florida State head coach with 15 fourth-quarter points in a span of 1:40, as the Seminoles rallied to a 36-26 win over Samford.
- It was Florida State's first victory after trailing at the half since rallying from a 13-10 deficit at NC State on Nov. 5, 2016 for a 24-20 victory.
- The Seminoles improved to 24-0 all-time against FCS opponents.
- After losing the takeaway battle 5-0 in the season opener against Virginia Tech, FSU used a 5-1 takeaway advantage against Samford to pull out a victory. Senior DB A.J. Westbrook recorded his first interception, while sophomore DB Cyrus Fagan recovered his first fumble, both in the first half. DT Marvin Taylor was credited with the forced fumble.
- The Seminoles recorded their first four-interception game since Nov. 23, 2013 at home against Idaho in an 80-14 win.
- QB Deondre Francois eclipsed 300 passing yards for the sixth time in his career. The redshirt sophomore was 31-of-46 for 320 yards and 3 TDs with 0 interceptions.
- Redshirt freshman WR Tamorrion Terry collected the first two TD receptions of his career in the first half.
- Sophomore TE Tre' McKitty's 5-yard TD reception with 4:03 remaining gave the Noles their first lead. McKitty's first career TD reception capped his second consecutive five-reception game.
- Nyqwan Murray's two-point conversion reception was the first 2-point conversion by the Noles since Nick O'Leary collected an EJ Manuel pass at Virginia Tech on Nov. 8, 2012.
- Cam Akers led the Noles in rushing (14-76) and also had a team-high 7 receptions (38 yds.).
- Junior DB Levonta Taylor's 63-yard interception return for a TD with 2:23 remaining sealed the victory. It was the first interception return for a score by the Noles since Taylor's 18-yard return at Florida last season.
- Junior DB Kyle Meyers snared a pair of second-half interceptions, the most in a game by a Seminole since Levonta Taylor had two against Florida last season. They were Meyers' second and third career picks.

2018 GAME RECAPS

Saturday, Sept. 29, 2018
Florida State 28, Louisville 24
Louisville, Ky. | Cardinal Stadium

- The Seminoles overcame a 14-point second-half deficit, their largest comeback since trailing by 15 at halftime of the 2016 season opener.
- FSU forced its seventh and eight turnovers of the season in the fourth quarter both setting up and sealing the come-from-behind victory.
- FSU converted its first two fourth-down tries of the season on the same drive in the fourth quarter. The drive ended with Francois' third touchdown pass of the game, tying a career high.
- Redshirt freshman DeCalon Brooks recorded his first career sack and forced fumble on Louisville's first drive.
- Senior Nyqwan Murray caught a 17-yard touchdown from Deondre Francois to tie the score in the first quarter. It was Murray's team-high 10th career touchdown. He then added number 11 on the game-winning score on a 58-yarder from Francois.
- Redshirt freshman Tamorrion Terry caught a 55-yard touchdown in the third quarter.
- Terry's touchdown reception was his fourth of the season, the most for a Seminole freshman since Travis Rudolph also had four in 2014.
- Francois' had a career-best four touchdown passes in the game and moved into 16th on FSU's career touchdowns list.
- Francois completed his first eight passes of the second half for 132 yards and two touchdowns. He finished the second half 11-15 for 218 yards and three TDs.
- Dontavious Jackson forced a fumble that was recovered by Brian Burns and returned 14 yards. It was Jackson's first career forced fumble and the second career fumble recovery for Burns.
- Burns later sacked Louisville quarterback Jawon Pass and forced a fumble, the fifth of his career, and finished the game with 1.5 sacks.

Florida State 27, (17/17) Miami 28
Miami Gardens, Fla. | Hard Rock Stadium

- FSU set a season high with 13.0 tackles for loss. The previous high was 7.0 against Virginia Tech, Syracuse and Louisville.
- FSU's 5.0 sacks set a season high. The previous high was 4.0 against Northern Illinois and Louisville.
- D.J. Matthews finished with 145 punt return yards including returns of 46 yards and a 74-yard touchdown. Matthews' 145 yards set a career high and were one yard shy of the most in the country for any player this season.
- Matthews' punt return touchdown was the first for a Seminole since Bobo Wilson against Charleston Southern in 2016.
- Wide receiver Keith Gavin caught a 17-yard touchdown on FSU's first drive, his first career touchdown.
- Tamorrion Terry caught his team-high fifth touchdown in the second quarter to extend FSU's lead to 17-7. Terry's five touchdown catches are the most for an FSU freshman since Rashad Greene had seven in 2011.
- Sophomore defensive tackle Marvin Wilson recorded a career-high 2.0 sacks after entering the game with 1.5 in his career.
- Brian Burns finished the night with 4 tackles, 3 TFL, 2 sacks, a QB hurry, a PBU and 2 forced fumbles. Burns leads FSU with 7 sacks on the season. For his career, Burns has 21 sacks and 7 forced fumbles.
- Burns registered multiple forced fumbles in a game for the second time in his career (Clemson, 2017). DeCalon Brooks recovered Burns' first forced fumble against the Hurricanes.
- Ricky Aguayo made a pair of field goals, including a career-long 53-yarder to end the first half. Aguayo passed Scott Bentley (42, 1993-96) and moved into a tie for 7th on FSU's all-time career made field goals list with 43.

2018 GAME RECAPS

Saturday, October 20, 2018
Wake Forest 17,
Florida State 38
Tallahassee, Fla. | Doak Campbell Stadium

- Florida State sacked Wake Forest six times. The Noles recorded at least 4.0 sacks in four consecutive games for the first time since 2011.
- Cam Akers' 58-yard TD run on the opening series of the second half was the second-longest of his career and his second TD of the game. It is the third time the sophomore has had a pair of rushing TDs in a game and the first since last season against ULM.
- Senior WR Nyqwan Murray enjoyed eight receptions for 131 yards and a TD, which was just shy of his career-high nine receptions for 153 yards at NC State in 2016.
- Quarterback Deondre Francois completed 29 of 40 attempts for 353 yards and 2 TDs, his school-record third game with at least 40 pass attempts and zero interceptions. All three games have resulted in FSU victories.
- Junior TE Naseir Upshur collected the first two receptions of his career on consecutive plays of the Noles' first possession of the fourth quarter, gaining 11 yards
- Freshman WR Keyshawn Helton also collected the first two receptions of his career on the same drive as Upshur.
- Freshman WR Tre'Shaun Harrison's 21-yard TD reception from Deondre Francois with 9:43 remaining was the first TD reception of his career.
- RS-sophomore DE Janarius Robinson established a new career high with six tackles.
- The Seminoles recorded season-high totals in points (38), total offense (485), passing offense (353), rushing touchdowns (3), yards per play (6.9), yards per rush (4.6) and sacks (6).

Saturday, Oct. 27, 2018
(2/2) Clemson 59,
Florida State 10,
Tallahassee, Fla. | Doak Campbell Stadium

- Sophomore QB James Blackman's 73-yard touchdown pass to freshman receiver Keyshawn Helton with 4:43 left in the game was the first touchdown of the season for Blackman and the first of his career for Helton. The 73-yard pass was the longest of Blackman's career.
- Helton's touchdown made him the seventh Seminole to record a receiving touchdown and 13th Seminole to score a touchdown this season. It also helped him record the first 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- A.J. Lytton's interception in the fourth quarter was the first of his career.
- Freshman DB Asante Samuel Jr. recorded three pass breakups surpassing his previous career high of two.
- Redshirt freshman DeCalon Brooks and senior Demarcus Christmas tied for the team lead in tackles with seven each. Seven tackles marked a new career high for Christmas, whose previous high was five.
- Junior TE Gabe Nabers recorded a career-high two receptions for 37 yards. His 25-yard catch in the third quarter was the longest of his career.
- Senior WR Nyqwan Murray's five receptions for 49 yards brought his season stats to a team-leading 40 catches for 536 yards (13.4 yard average).

2018 GAME RECAPS

Saturday, November 3, 2018
Florida State 28,
(RV/RV/21) NC State 47
Raleigh, N.C. | Carter-Finley Stadium

- Sophomore QB James Blackman had a career game in his first start of the season, throwing for a career-high 421 yards. His four touchdowns tied a career high that was set in the 2017 Independence Bowl against Southern Miss.
- Blackman's 421 pass yards were the most in a singles game since Jameis Winston threw for 444 at No. 3 Clemson in 2013.
- Redshirt freshman receiver Tamorrion Terry had the best game of his young career, recording five catches for 142 yards and two touchdowns, all single game career highs.
- Terry's two touchdowns give him a team-leading seven TD receptions on the season.
- Sophomore receiver D.J. Matthews finished the game with 10 catches for 133 yards and one touchdown. The 10 catches doubled Matthews single-game career high, and the 133 yards more than tripled his previous single-game career high.
- Sophomore Hamsah Nasirildeen recorded a career-high 15 tackles. He leads the team with 72 tackles.
- Junior Brian Burns recorded two more TFLs, giving him a team-leading 13.5 on the year.
- Senior A.J. Westbrook tied his career high in tackles with 10. He is second on the team in tackles with 48 in 2018.
- Sophomore tight end Tre' McKitty tied his career high in receptions with five for 57 yards, including a career-long 32-yard reception in the second quarter.

Saturday, November 10, 2018
Florida State 13,
(3/3/3) Notre Dame 42
Notre Dame, Ind. | Notre Dame Stadium

- The game-time temperature of 27 degrees was the second-coldest in FSU history, behind only the 1983 Peach Bowl (24 degrees) against North Carolina in Atlanta. It was the third-coldest game in Notre Dame Stadium since 1980.
- Defensive lineman Cory Durden made the first start of his career. Durden blocked an extra point in the second quarter, the first blocked kick of his career and FSU's first since Walvenski Aimé blocked one at Florida in 2017.
- FSU started its ninth different offensive line combination in 10 games, the most of any Power 5 team in the country.
- Nyqwan Murray caught a six-yard pass in the first quarter, his 28th straight game with a reception. He finished with 79 yards. His six receptions moved him into 19th on FSU's career list (121).
- Running back Cam Akers had touchdown runs of seven and eight yards to record his fourth career two-touchdown game and his second of the season.
- Akers' first touchdown capped a 16-play, 75-yard drive that took 7:36 off the clock. It was FSU's longest drive in terms of plays and time this season.
- Sophomore Stanford Samuels III intercepted his third pass of the season and the fifth of his career, both team highs, in the third quarter. FSU scored a touchdown on the ensuing drive and has 45 points off turnovers so far in 2018.
- Junior Dontavious Jackson had his first career interception in the third quarter. FSU has intercepted multiple passes in three games this season (Samford - 4, Louisville - 2, Notre Dame - 2).

GAME RECAPS

Saturday, November 17, 2018
(22/22/20) Boston College 21, Florida State 22
Tallahassee, Fla. | Doak Campbell Stadium

- FSU's win over No. 22 Boston College was its first win over a ranked opponent since the 2016 Orange Bowl over No. 6 Michigan. Florida State used a 74-yard touchdown pass from Deondre Francois to Tamorrion Terry with 1:49 remaining to take the lead. It was the Seminoles' 12th one-point win all-time and first at home since a 14-13 win over Georgia Tech in 2003.
- Francois' 74-yard touchdown to Terry was the longest of his five career fourth-quarter game-winning touchdowns. His previous high was a 58-yarder to Nyqwan Murray at Louisville earlier this season. All five have come in the final five minutes of the game.
- Terry caught three passes for 112 yards and the 74-yard touchdown. The redshirt freshman has two 100-yard games this season and his 8 touchdown catches are one shy of the FSU freshman record. Terry's 666 receiving yards are the most in school history for a freshman.
- Running back Cam Akers ran for 110 yards, including a four-yard touchdown and a 55-yarder in the second half. Akers has 13 career rushing touchdowns and six in 2018. It was Akers' first 100-yard rushing game this season and fifth of his career.
- FSU's defense held Boston College to just 2.6 yards per rush (125 yards on 49 carries). The Eagles entered the day averaging 203.9 rush yards per game and 4.3 yards per carry. The Seminoles outgained the Eagles 478-422 overall, 156-125 on the ground and 322-297 in the air. FSU averaged 6.4 yards per play.
- Defensive end Brian Burns had a career-high-tying seven tackles, with 2.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack. Burns now has 10.0 sacks on the season, a career high, and 24.0 for his career, fifth-most in FSU history.
- Cornerback Stanford Samuels III intercepted his team-high fourth pass of the year.
- Junior linebacker Dontavious Jackson led Florida State with 14 tackles, tying a career high set earlier this season at Syracuse. Jackson added his first sack of the season and he now has 2.5 in his career. As a team, FSU had 2.0 sacks and 5.0 tackles for loss after being shut out in both categories last week at Notre Dame.

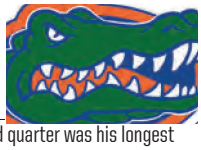
Saturday, November 24, 2018
(11/13/13) Florida 41, Florida State 14
Tallahassee, Fla. | Doak Campbell Stadium



- QB Deondre Francois' 32-yard run to convert fourth-and-13 in the third quarter was his longest run from scrimmage since 2016 and set up his 4-yard TD run with 4:16 remaining in the quarter. With the PAT the Noles trimmed their deficit to 27-14. It was Francois' third rushing TD of the season and eighth of his career.
- Freshman LB Jaiden Woodbey recorded his first career sack in the third quarter and was his ninth tackle of the game, on his way to a career-high 11 tackles. Woodbey finished with 1.5 tackles for loss and one QB hurry.
- Hamsah Nasirildeen added 10 stops for the Noles, pushing his season total to a team-leading 91.
- Leonard Warner III registered a career-high nine tackles, while Marvin Wilson matched his career-high with seven.
- Francois finished 14-of-29 for 154 yards, one TD and one interception. He moved to 8th all-time in career completions with 481, passing Charlie Ward, and into 9th with 6,291 passing yards.
- Senior RB Jacques Patrick led the Noles with 52 rushing yards on 10 carries and closed his career with 1,790 yards, which moved him past Dexter Carter for No. 16 on FSU's all-time list.
- Senior Nyqwan Murray had three receptions for 35 yards and concluded his career alone at No. 17 all-time at FSU in receptions (127) and No. 17 in receiving yards (1,854).
- Punter Logan Tyler enjoyed an outstanding day, averaging 50.1 yards on nine punts. He had six punts of 50 or more yards, including a career-high-tying 61-yarder in the second half. His six 50-yard punts were a career-high.
- Freshman Tamorrion Terry had three receptions for a team-high 78 yards and finishes the season with 35 receptions for 744 yards, which ties Murray for the season lead in receiving yards. Terry averaged 21.3 yards per catch for the season on 35 grabs to go along with his team-leading eight TDs through the air.
